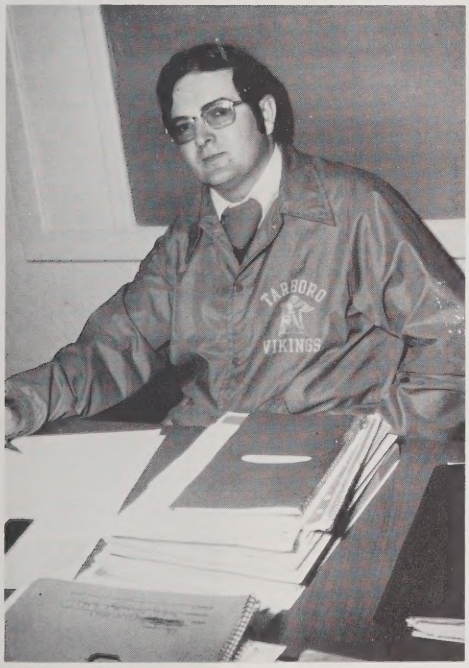
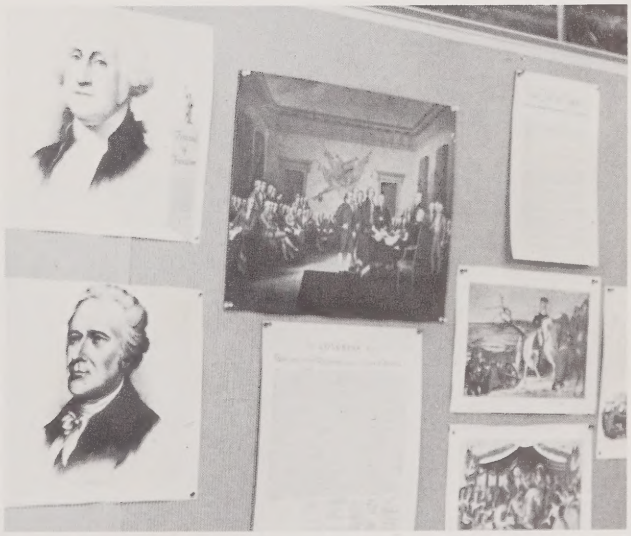
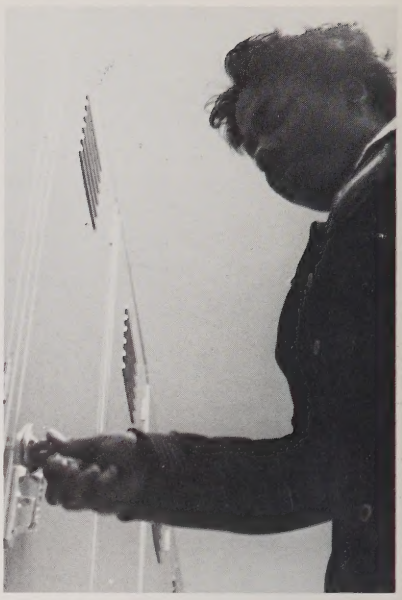
The SPIRIT OF YESTERDAY began with our forefathers, who had a spirit and a determination to found a land based on freedom. Throughout our history, that spirit has been revived with each joy and crisis. The traditions which have been established are still universal principles and laws used today. By studying history, we can benefit from the heritage of other cultures and civilizations. The past influences us.



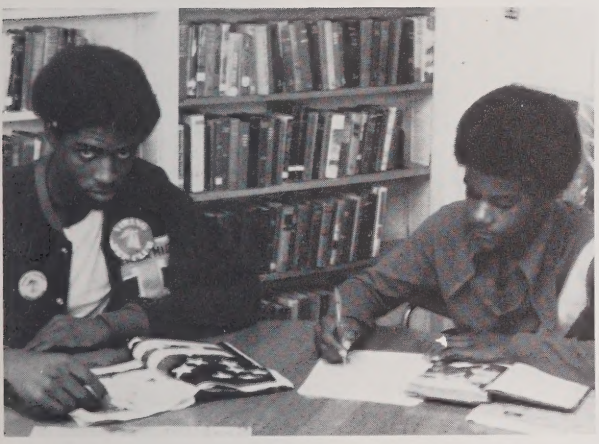
Social studies teacher, Mr. Harry Jones, published TARBOROUGH AND ITS ACADEMIES this year, a product of his research of the past.

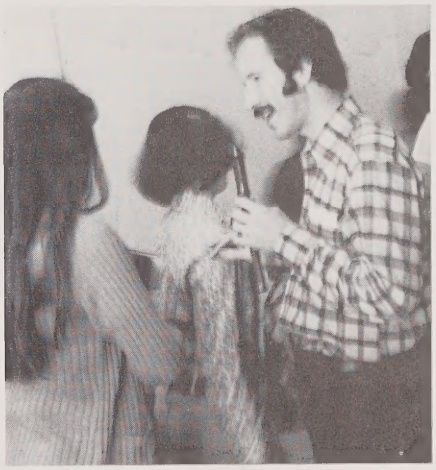




The SPIRIT OF TODAY is reflected in our actions. By sharing our talents and experiences with others, we build toward a better future. A day well lived makes pleasant memories and a more hopeful future. We are caught up in the present.

The SPIRIT OF TOMORROW is founded by our eagerness to explore. What we learn today will decide how we live tomorrow. Only through our efforts can we maintain our heritage. We are the future.

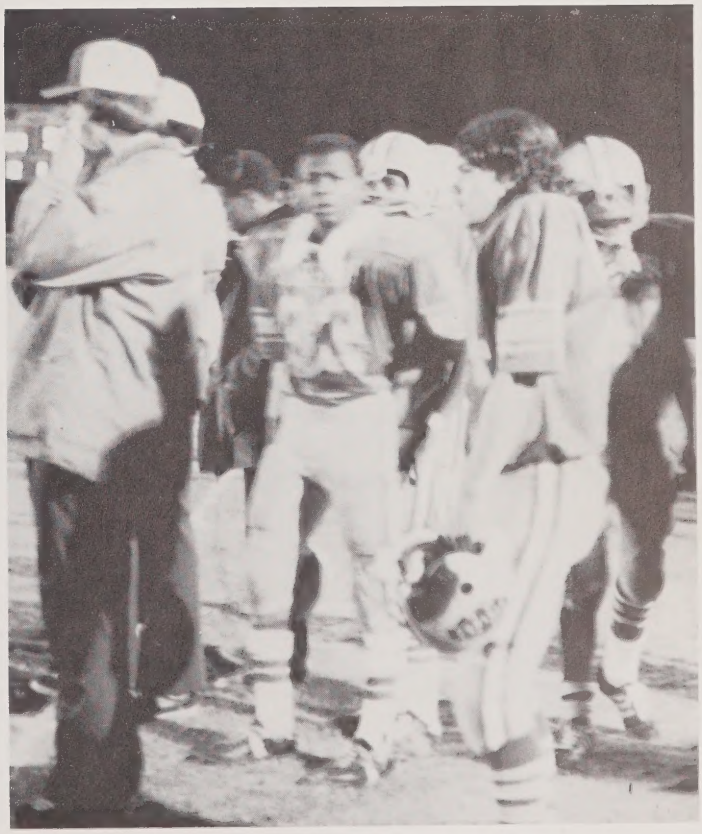




This is the year our nation celebrates its 200th anniversary. We have documented the past. We have evaluated the present. We shall go forward with a renewed sense of the SPIRIT OF '76.

"Life is my college. May I graduate well and earn some honors."

Louisa M. Alcott

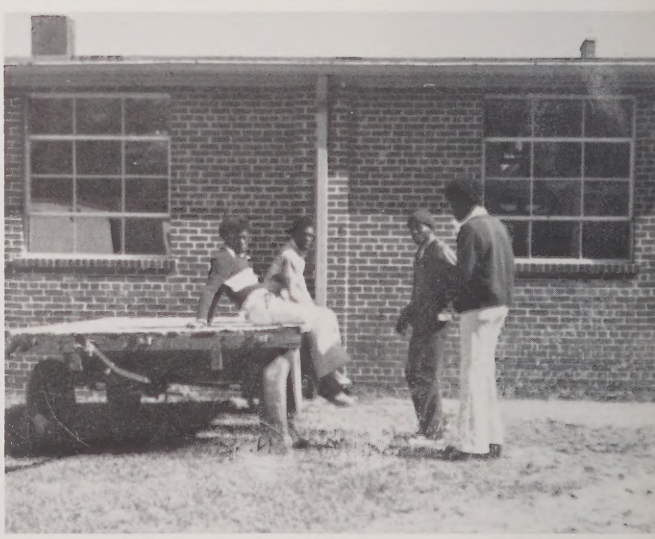


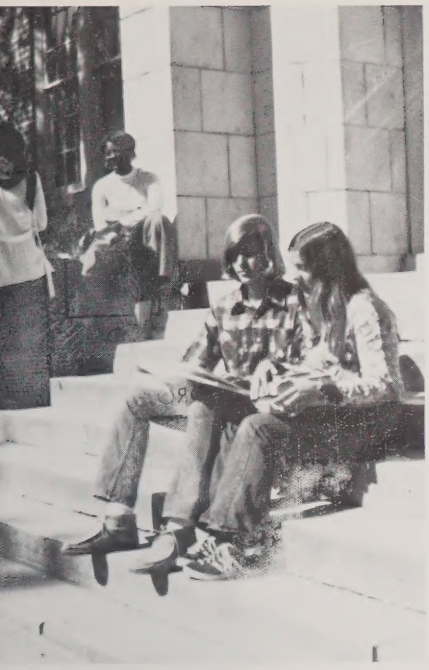
"And in to-day already walks to-morrow."

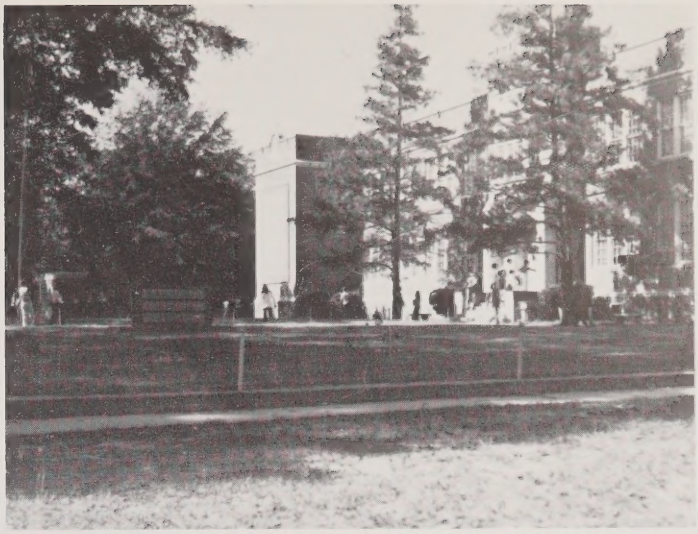
Samuel Taylor Coleridge

"Today is yesterday's pupil."

Benjamin Franklin





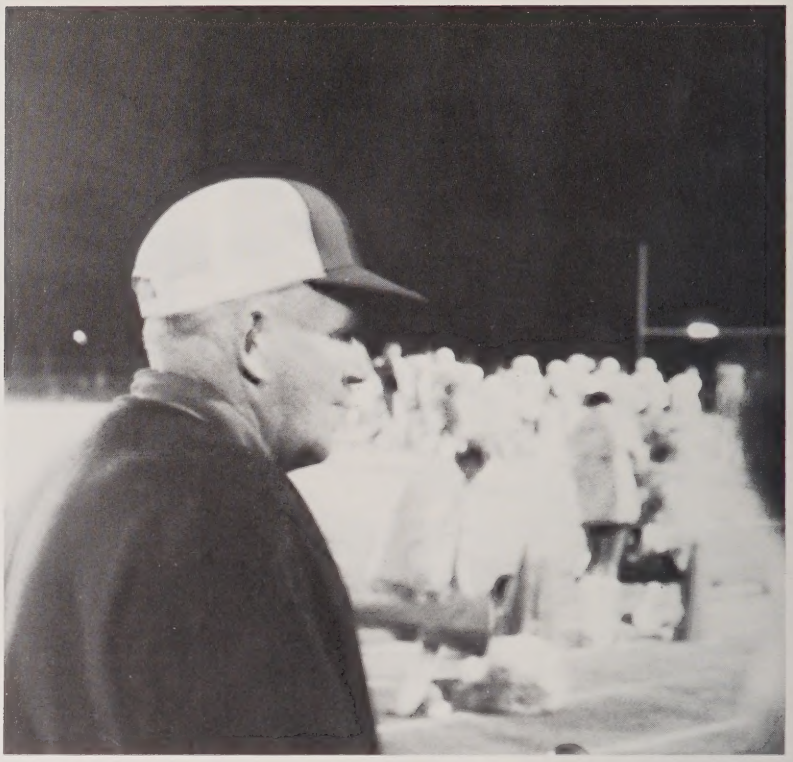


"Bear in mind your labor is for future hours."

Richard Henry
Hengest Horne

"A wise man will make more opportunities than he finds."

Francis Bacon



Dedication Goes to Spirited Educator

The 1976 TAR-BO-RAH is dedicated to a man highly respected by both students and faculty at T.S.H. His diverse background gives him an understanding of his fellowman envied by many.

MR. JULIAN CLEVELAND is aware of life and eager to explore and learn. He not only has school spirit, but also love for country and love for his fellowman - true qualities of the Spirit of '76.

In the classroom, his thorough instruction and individual attention qualify him as a superior teacher of drafting and textiles. Outside the classroom, his involvement in VICA, the Pep Club, and civic organizations denotes him as a man of concern, spirit, and action.

"All goes if courage goes."

In Memory of

Mrs. Edna Meeks

Mrs. Edna Meeks died October 5, 1975, in Pitt Memorial Hospital in Greenville, North Carolina. She taught French and history at Tarboro Senior High School from 1959-1962. She taught French part time from 1964-1969 and worked on her masters degree in library science.

During the past five years as librarian, Mrs. Meeks was dedicated to improving the library and making its environment conducive to learning. Her work at Tarboro Senior High School will not be forgotten but will be exemplified through the success of those students who knew her.

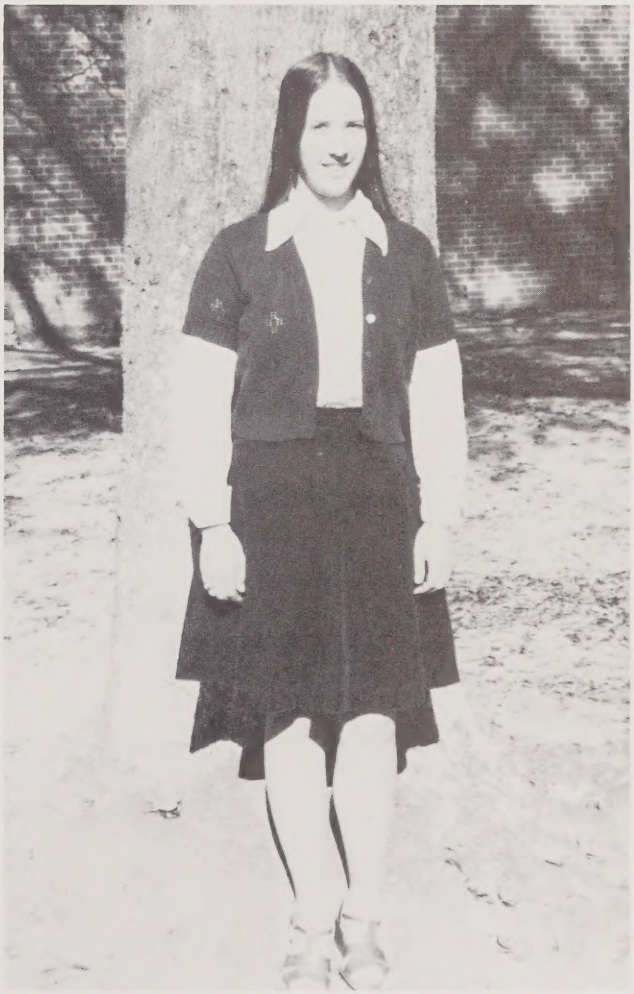
Outstanding Seniors

Donna Gail Bottoms

Donna Bottoms not only stands tall in stature but also in personality. She is quiet, but smiling; unassuming, but conscientious; modest, but outstanding. Donna can be described as well rounded. She hopes to go into nursing at A&T.



Patricia Anne Brown

Concerned for others, Patty Brown's busy schedule includes school, a job, and scouts. Several groups have benefitted from her leadership - JMHA, band, and the newspaper. Patty's interest in the mentally retarded will become her field of study at East Carolina.

Outstanding Seniors

Rodney Kieth Cranford

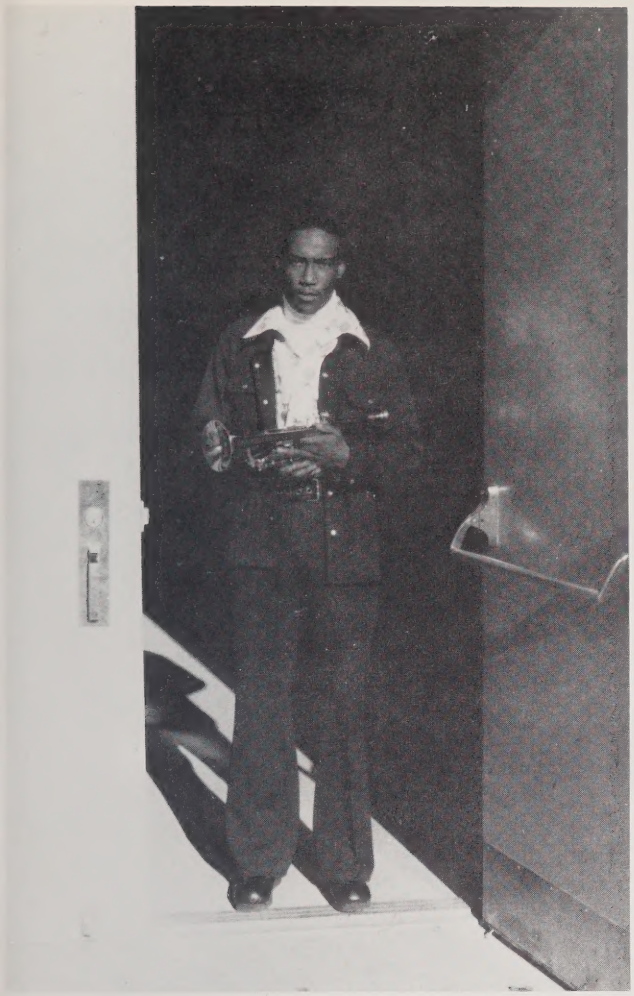
Unique in both personality and appearance, Rodney Cranford is an individual, a one of a kind. Talented in art and acting, Ronnie is creative, philosophical, and unconventional. Ronnie will further his education in some area of art.

Janis Harper has led her class academically. Though appearing to be reserved at first meeting, Janis' classmates are often entertained by her "Remus" original, silly songs, and her creative class presentations. Janis will study media at Carolina.

Janis Renee Harper

Outstanding Seniors

A love of life and a love of music mark Steve Howard. His outgoing personality and ready smile make him popular among his peers. Talented and witty, Steve plans to pursue a musical career.



Stevenson Leroy Howard

Eager to learn and determined to reach his goals, Lew Irvin is seriously concerned about school work. A deep thinker and challenger, Lew plans to study medicine at Carolina.

Lewis Roger Irvin, Jr.

Outstanding Seniors

Angelia Chantell McNeil

Ann McNeil, a serious but happy individual, is hard working and conscientious. Talented in music, interested in clubs, and an active staffer on both newspaper and annual, Ann gives unselfishly to those responsibilities she assumes. Ann will study early childhood education at A&T.

A vibrant personality and a way with oral and written words have helped Tony Moss develop and use his varied talents. Tony seeks challenging avenues of expression, and his interests range from sports to writing poetry. Tony hopes to study law at Carolina.

Reginald Anthony Moss, Jr.

Outstanding Seniors

Deborah Kay Stainback

Debbie Stainback scintillates with laughter and happiness, yet she is a serious, concerned student. Talented in music and drama, Debbie's leads in school productions and solos in ensemble attest to her talents. Interested in science, Debbie plans to go into medical technology at N.C. State.

Carolina Anita Suggs

Small in stature but strong in mind, Carolyn Suggs is recognized as a leader in several different areas of school activity. Her school spirit is evident as she leads the varsity cheerleaders. Carolyn plans to attend A&T State University.

Outstanding Seniors

James Elbert Wood

James Wood was voted Best All-Around by his classmates, attesting to the sincerity with which he is involved in and concerned about school activities. There is a quietness about James, but there is also an authoritative manner, demanding respect. James plans to study engineering at A&T.

A ready smile and a lively personality characterize Steve Watkins. His diverse talents, unusual wit, and academic excellence help him relate to all types of people. Steve's plans will be determined by the results of the Moorehead Scholarship District Competition.

Steven Baxter Watkins

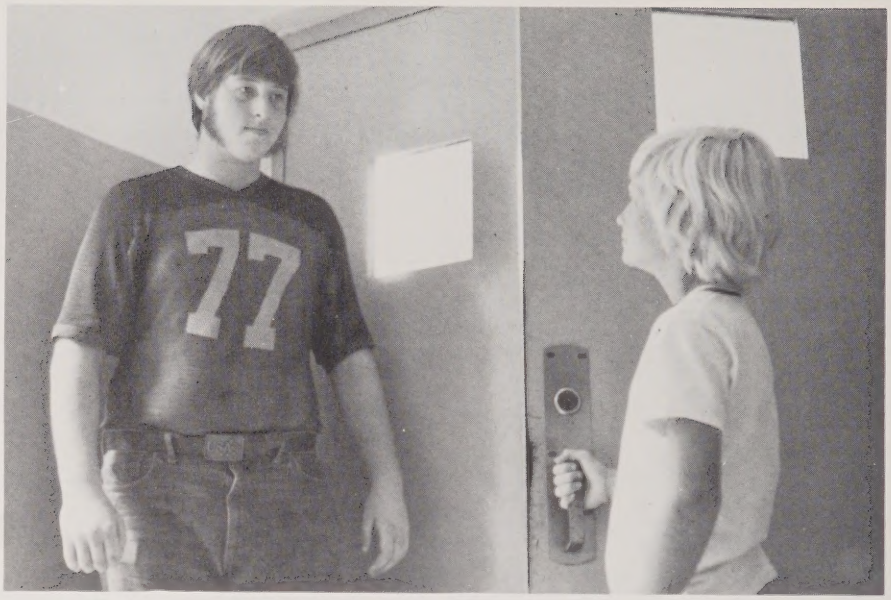
Student Life

"If you can find a path with no obstacles, it probably doesn't lead anywhere."

— Frank Clark



This is just one of the many obstacles a sophomore has to face at TSH.

"There's got to be a better way to open that door."

Contestants for the $10,000 Pyramid?

"Looking over your record here, I see that you pinned a frog once instead of your opponent."

A lot of things are asked of you at TSH, including blood!

Doesn't she know there's no school on Saturday?

Debbie finds school a "shocking" experience.

Mary finally finds the right shade of lipstick for Casey - sexy sophomore.

Should we eat lunch here or try for Hardees?

Homecoming can be a wet event!

Tony and Ronnie think a coffee break is just what TSH students need.

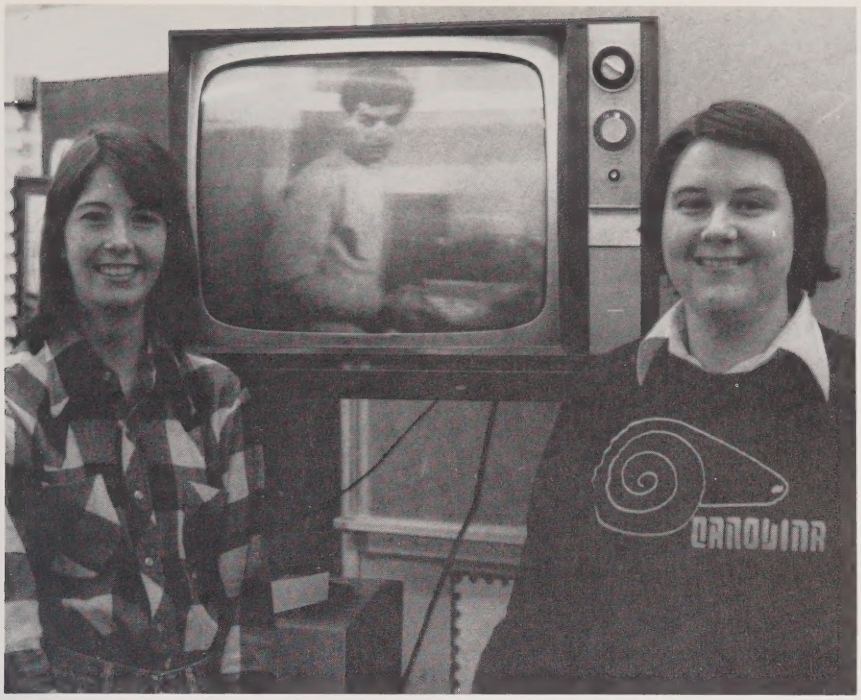
The Three Musketeers?

Governor's School

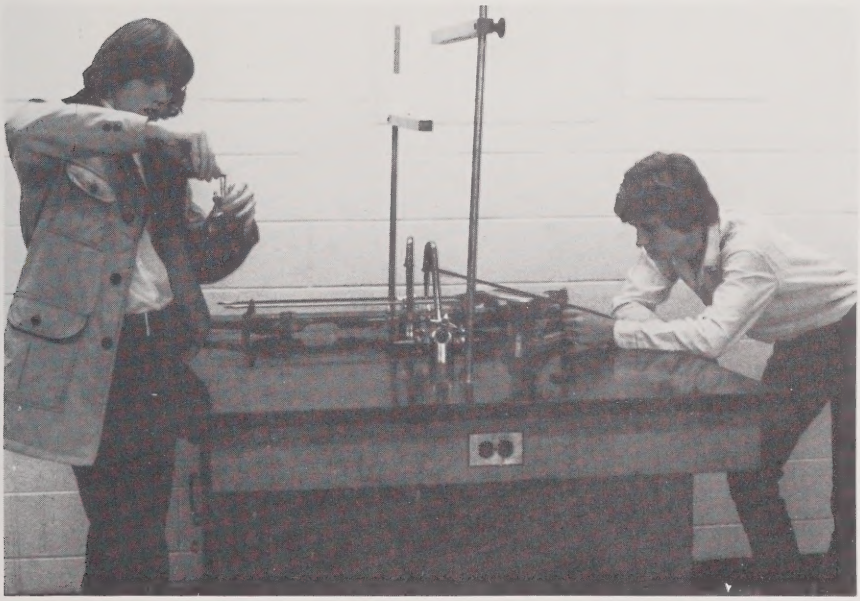
TONY MOSS was chosen from TSH this year for Governor's School, which is held on the campus of Salem College in Winston-Salem. Governor's School students are chosen by a statewide selection board after the candidate's nomination by the school. Tony was nominated in the field of English.

Girls' State —

CAROL VICK and DEBBIE STAINBACK attended the 36th Tar Heel Girls' State this summer sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary on the campus of UNC-G. The main purpose of Girls' State is not only to teach the structure of government but to show the importance of becoming good citizens in the functioning of the government.



25th Annual Radio-TV Institute at UNC-CH — JANIS HARPER and SALLY DAVIS attended this two-week workshop. Promoting careers in communication and college life at UNC, the program familiarized the girls with radio engineering, T.V. production, and film making.



Science Workshops — STEVE WATKINS attended the N.C. State chemistry and physics workshop held on the N.C. State campus. ROGER ARMSTRONG went to Pfeiffer College in Misenheimer, N.C. He was there for approximately six weeks, studying social sciences, logics, sociology, and history.

Graduation '75

The graduation exercises of 1975 were held at the newly completed football stadium at C. B. Martin Junior High School instead of the traditional location in the baseball stadium. Seniors, approximately 180, participated in the traditional Baccalaureate worship services; Awards night, which honors Seniors' special achievements; and graduation night itself, June 10.

Powder-Puff Pep Rally

The sophomore and junior cheerleaders are just plain beautiful.

Is this school spirit or mob violence?

Coach Brett introduces the "pretty girl" candidates for Miss Powderpuff and Miss Monogram.

The senior boys are just "a pair of pretty legs."

Tony Parrisher feels safer outside the senior huddle.

The Night of the Game

The candidates with their escorts await the announcement of the queens.

The junior girls take a break.

The seniors won the game 8 to 6.

'Carla'' Bryant was crowned Miss Pow-derpuff, and ''Theresa'' Thorne was crowned Miss Monogram.

Does anyone know the score? The minutes left in the game? The reason for the game?

"Look, ma, I finally got in a picture!"

"Boy, this class is too exciting."

Santa finds his job at TSH a little difficult.

Oops, wrong school bus!!

Dream on!!

Things go better with Sprite and Fritos.

Could Carolyn be sweet talking these young men into buying an annual?

Studying? Are you kidding?

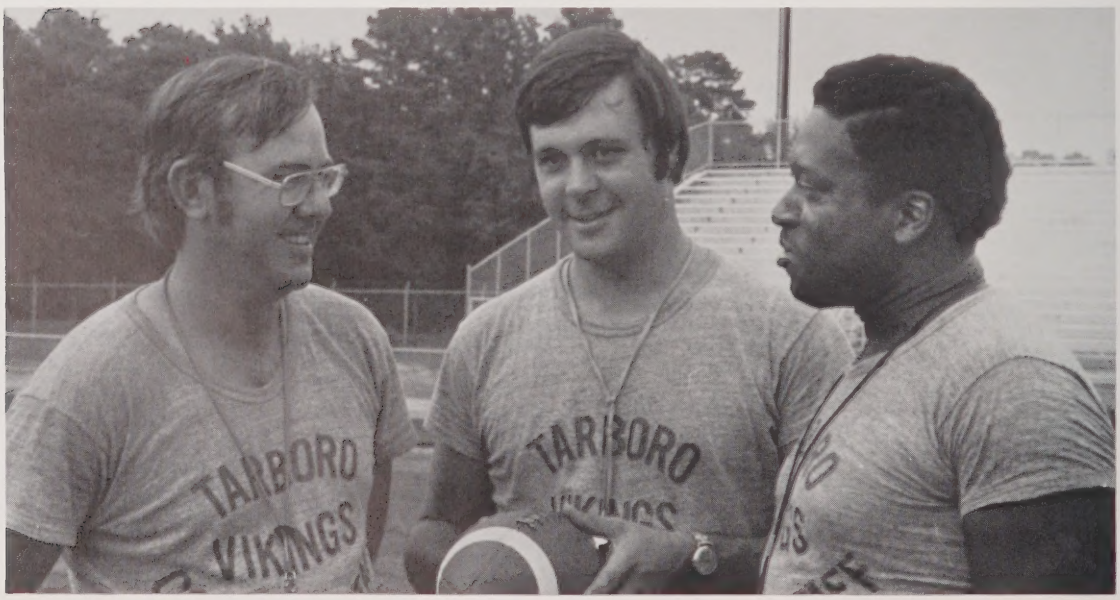
The Tarboro Vikings, under the direction of head coach Jim Brett and assistant coaches Earl Miller and John Harris, completed the 1975 football season compiling a 5-5 record. Although predicted a rebuilding year, Tarboro exhibited strong potential early in the season, defeating 4-A Rocky Mount. However, after rolling to a 3-1 record, three consecutive losses marred Tarboro's standing.

Many individual performances contributed to the team's success: running leader, Sam Bryant; blocker and pass catcher, All-Conference Terry Thorne; and defensive All-Conference junior, Don Williams.



COACHES: John Harris, Head Coach Jim Brett, Earl Miller.

Vikings Upset Archrivals

Tarboro — 8 Rocky Mount — 0

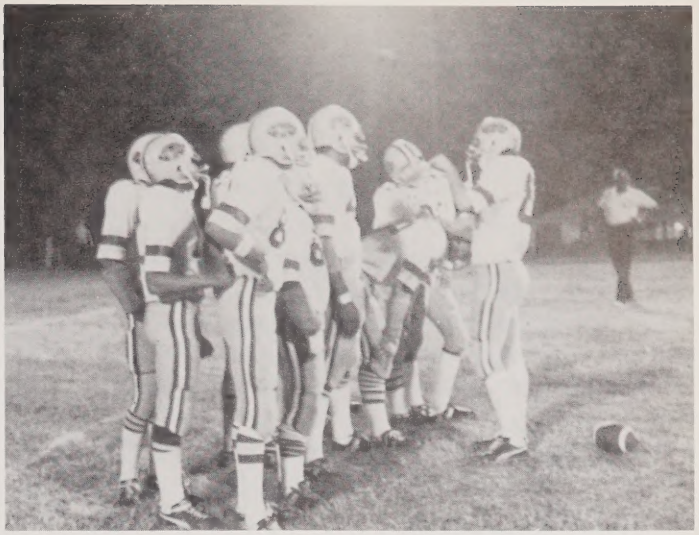
Starting the season with a clash of excitement and upsetting 4-A archrival Rocky Mount, Tarboro's grudging defense was the story of the evening as the Vikings shut down Rocky Mount's offense. Following a blocked punt, Stanford Joyner smashed over from the eight and with a two-point conversion recorded a shut-out in the first game of the season.



Tarboro Humbles Bertie

Tarboro — 14 Bertie — 6

Tarboro plucked the Bertie Falcons for their second straight triumph over 4-A opponents. Unable to untrack their ground game because of sloppy field conditions, the Vikings went to the air late in the second half. With the score tied at 6-6 in the fourth quarter, Donald Barnes connected with Terry Thorne on third and long to put the win within striking distance. Sam Bryant smashed over for the score to preserve Tarboro's record at 2-0.

Northern Nash Tames Vikings

Tarboro — 7 Northern Nash — 26

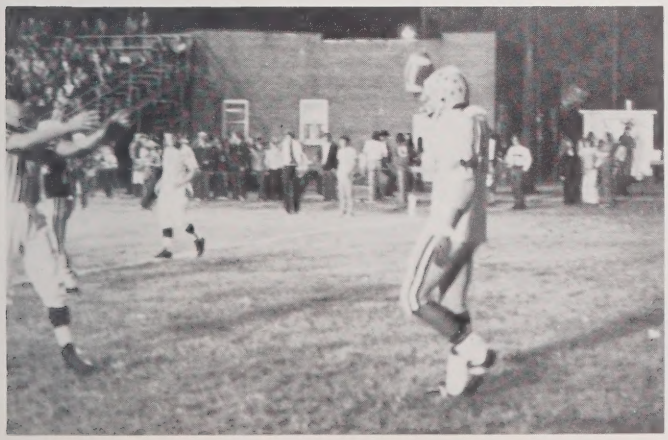
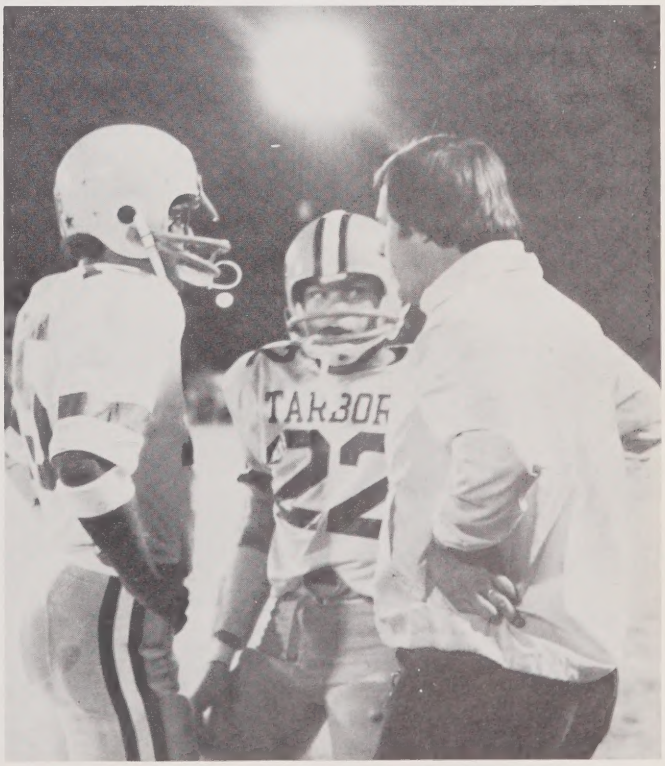
This non-conference clash proved to be the spoiler for Tarboro's unblemished record. Northern Nash, a perennial 4-A powerhouse, came out a new team in the second half. The Knights' bruising ground game proved too much for Tarboro's defense as Northern Nash rolled up 15 points in the third and fourth quarters to take the victory.





Tarboro Stuns Washington

Tarboro — 15 Washington — 14

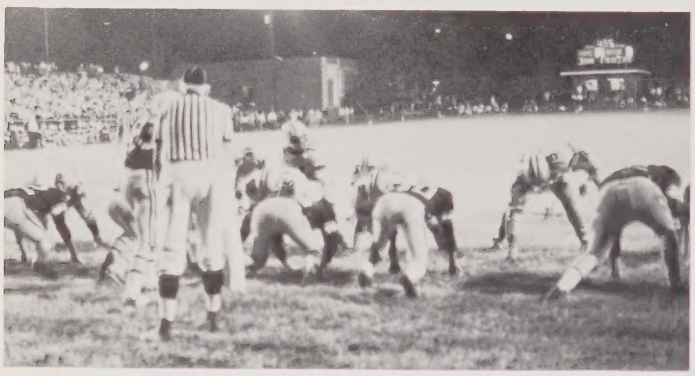
Washington came to Viking town as pre-season favorite to win the Northeastern championship. In the first conference clash for both teams, Tarboro's bend-but-never-break defense handed the Pam Pack a setback in their predicted quest for the conference crown. Tarboro's fake ball handling was superbly exhibited when Glen Scott ran straight up the middle of the Pack's defense for a 60-yard touchdown run - they never saw the ball until he was 30 yards down field. A later score by Sam Bryant, a two and one-point conversion, proved to be Washington's Waterloo as the Vikes held on to a one-point win.



Vikings Fall Short

Tarboro — 0 Edenton — 6

Edenton, third-ranked team in the East, was expected to roll past Tarboro with ease, but the Vikings gave the Aces all they could handle before falling short 6-0. From kickoff, a defensive battle ensued in which several Viking drives stalled just inside Edenton's 20-yard line. Late in the second half, an interception and return put the Aces in good field condition. A strong running game ended all scoring.

Vikings Burned

Tarboro — 7 Williamston — 23

On the first play of the game, Williamston scored on a long pass; and from that point on, Tarboro never seemed to be in the game. With a balanced running and passing attack, the Tigers pierced the Viking defense for numerous long gains. Tarboro mustered its lone score in the fourth quarter to prevent the shutout.

Vikings Lose Homecoming

Tarboro — 31 Plymouth — 52

Several key injuries and a Plymouth offensive explosion spoiled the homecoming festivities. Losing handily at the beginning of the second half, Tarboro's offense untracked and began to come back, but "too little too late" was the story as time ran out.

Vikings Are Denied

Tarboro — 0 Ahoskie — 28

Ahoskie, very much in conference championship contention, decided not to let Tarboro stand in their way. The Cougars looked very much like their previous two conference championship teams in unleashing an almost unstopped running attack and staunch defense which shut Tarboro out 28-0.

Tarboro Explodes Past Roanoak Rapids

Tarboro — 36 Roanoak Rapids — 14

In the final game of the season, Tarboro proved to be the spoiler of Roanoke Rapids' homecoming. After a very close first half, the Vikings exploded in the second half, running and passing for three touchdowns and an assurance of a winning season at 5-5.

Tarboro Bounces Back

Tarboro — 26 Wake Forest — 12

Unleashing a devastating ground and aerial attack, Tarboro sheered the skin off the Wake Forest Cougars. With its combined attack, the Vikings rolled up 500 total yards. Donald Barnes picked the Cougar secondary apart, passing for 200 yards and one touchdown.

The Junior Varsity squad compiled a 1-8 record with their sol victory over Plymouth. In their final match, however, the J.V. team played a commendable game against conference champi- ons Roanoke Rapids, only to fall short of a possible victory within the closing minutes.

The 1975-76 Viking basketball squad suffered a season of disappointment. Although the material seemed present, Coach John Harris expressed that bad execution may have proved to be the downfall. Even though the number in the win column was small, the season was marked by several close games in which the outcome was not proved until the second half or last quarter.

Girls' Tennis '75

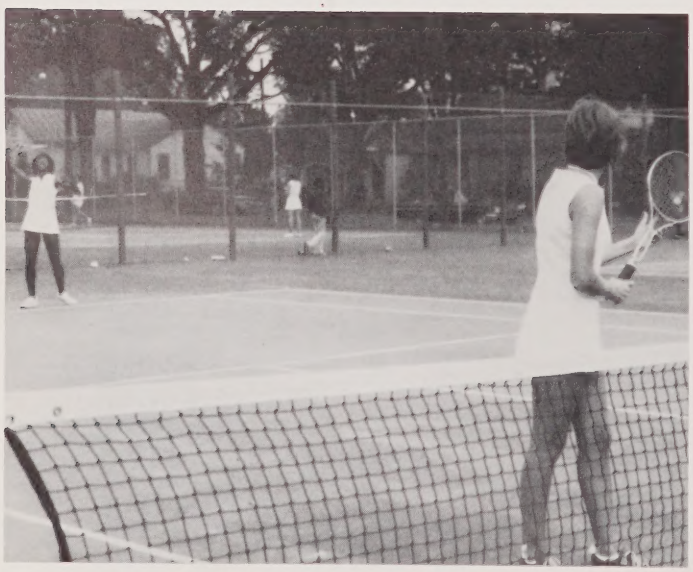
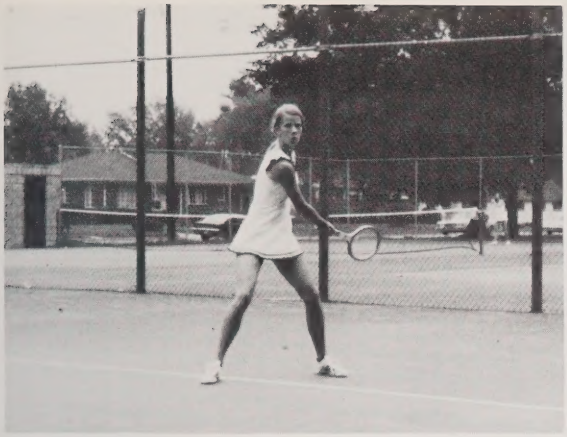
The second-year girls' tennis program boasted an improved team in 1975, compiling a 5-1 record overall and an outstanding 4-1 conference record. The single defeat resulted in the match with Roanoke Rapids.





Viking Baseball '75

ROW 1: Ricky Batts, Ralph Elks, Jamie Lewis, Tony Parrisher, Hoyt Craft, Donald Brady, Jerry Strickland. The '75 baseball team was impressive with a 13-4 record. Two heart-breaking, extra-inning losses toppled Tarboro's conference championship hopes, but a bright spot was handing State 3-A champion Williamston its only conference loss. Placing second in the conference with several impressive junior starters, the Vikings could be equally as potent in '76.

ROW 4: Nancy Black, Janice Thigpen, Neal Brown.

The 1975 track and field teams produced an unmarred conference record, as the boys rolled to another Northeastern 3-A conference championship and the girls won their first conference title. The teams, comprised of both male and female athletes this year, proved their ability despite the absence of graduate sprinter Carter Suggs. Coaches Jim Brett, Jon Cooley, and John Harris implemented the success of the teams with their effective coaching techniques.
